

Each butterfly represents a family reunited, asylum granted, or any other number of means through which our clients take a step towards stability. Dedicate your butterfly to an approved case; past, present, or future, that impacts you, your loved ones, or your community.

